Those refugees from Macedonia and Thrace, who fled into Bulgaria during the winter of 1945 and who are trusted members of the Communist Party, are gradually settling in Dobruja and are taking up farming there. Those who are educated and know the Bulgarian language are being appointed to public offices. The Communists from Thrace have enrolled in the "Thracian Organization". Those from Macedonia have enrolled in the "Macedonian Organization" (Gotse Delchev), which has its headquarters at 5 Marshal Tito Street in Sofia. The President of the Macedonian Organization was a certain Reserve Captain Daskalov, residing in Sofia at No. 1 Mouvov Most Square. There was a Committee in Sofia which looked after settling these refugees.
